LCP's annual global pensions conference

Overview

Continued market turmoil across the world has driven investors to look for safe havens for their money. This has created havoc for pension scheme sponsors who have found themselves trapped with investments and liabilities that are becoming more challenging. New legislation proposals across Europe are also causing considerable uncertainty, with some countries expected to be hit much harder than others.

LCP's Global Pensions in 2012 provides contrasting views on these effects from different country perspectives, together with solutions for tackling the issues. We will explain how our solution driven advice is helping our clients solve many of these problems including:

- The economic turmoil and its impact on pensions and investment
- "Solvency II for pensions" in Europe
- Pensions risk management from a corporate perspective
- The world-wide growth of Defined Contribution plans

Last year's conference was attended by representatives from DHL, Hilton Worldwide and Unilever with other well-known companies expected to join them this year.

Our international expertise.

CHAIRMAN

Alex Waite

LCP

This year we are excited to be joined by speakers from major global companies (Rio Tinto and Unilever) as well as a representative from the OECD. The conference will provide insights into the changing pensions landscape in a range of countries, drawing on the expertise of LCP's European offices and International Network of partner firms. We will also ensure plenty of opportunities to ask questions and share your experiences.
